

The companies of the Daiwa House group operate in a broad range of businesses extending outward from our core field of homebuilding and office construction to encompass a wide swathe of lifestyle-related customer needs. We will continue building up Japan's social capital in our core business fields while providing various lifestyle support and enhancement services. Going forward, we will provide a solid business infrastructure, which is said to be essential to the future prosperity of Japanese society. By raising the quality level of our products and services to provide value-added lifestyle-related assets that meet with full customer satisfaction, we will continue to forge ahead on our path toward a brighter future for all.
